4 Luxury Beach Resorts in Latin America

by Anne Thornley-Brown August 19, 2015

Corporate groups in the U.S. and Canada in search of unique adventures at luxury beach resorts need look no further than Latin America. Set in lush environments on the beach its an opportunity to relax and explore between meetings.

Los Suenos Marriott Ocean & Golf Resort (Costa Rica)

Los Suenos Marriott Ocean & Golf Resort is located between the Pacific Ocean and a 1,100-acre tropical rainforest. The resort has 11,900 of indoor and outdoor function space including 18 meeting rooms. The resort has golf, fitness, and spa facilities.

Hamanasi Adventure & Dive Resort, Hopkins Village (Belize)

Set in the midst of a 21-acre coastal rainforest, the 25 guest rooms of Hamanasi Adventure & Dive Resort come in 5 categories: deluxe treehouse, honeymoon suite, treehouse, beachfront deluxe, and beachfront rooms.

Rainforest excursions include bird watching, jungle and waterfall hikes, ziplining, caving, and jungle and river canoeing. The Cockscomb Basin Wildlife Sanctuary is nearby. Reef adventures include snorkeling, fishing, and scuba diving.

JW Marriott Panama Golf and Beach Resort (Panama)

With 118 Spanish Colonial-style guest rooms, 8 meeting rooms and 6 breakout rooms, JW Marriott Panama Golf and Beach Resort is only 80 miles from Panama City. Golf, fitness, and spa facilities ensure relaxation.

Mukul Luxury Resort and Spa (Nicaragua)

This boutique hotel with 37 units is set on beautiful Manzanillo Beach. The 12-kilometer of network of cycling and hiking trails provides an close-up view of monkeys, tropical birds, and sloths.

Guests can select from beach villas, bohios, Casona Don Carlos (a 4-bedroom beach residence), and Suite Dona Vivian with 2 master bedrooms. Furniture and accent pieces have been handcrafted by Nicaraguan artisans from local teak, sugarcane, and rum barrel staves.
